

Detective Edgardo Sigifredo Perez Linares of the National Police, born 31 March 1952, serves as an intermediary between Death Squad leadership and Roberto D'Aubuisson, President of ARENA. D'Aubuisson is believed to be responsible for selecting leftists targeted by National Police group. Perez is also an intermediary between Lt. Colonel Aristedes Marquez of the National Police and Hector Regalado on death squad matters. In March 1981, Perez was reported to be a member of the Archbishop Romero assassination team. Additionally, in late May and early June 1983 Perez directed assassinations from his position in the National Police.
